POSITION SUMMARY: The Geotechnician assists Geologists with processing and handling drill core in support of mineral exploration at the Palmer Project near Haines, Alaska. This is a full-time position for the 2023 drill season, starting late May to approximately early October.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Loading and unloading drill core for geologic review and core cutting.
- Geotechnical work with drill core including measuring and photographing drill core.
- Data entry in computer forms and spreadsheets.
- Additional duties may include, but are not limited to, occasional assistance with environmental and geotechnical field surveys and data collection, and general camp and field program support.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- High-school diploma required; post-secondary science credits a plus.
- No experience necessary; on the job training provided.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES:

- Ability to accurately measure and record data.
- Basic computer skills including spreadsheets and data entry.
- Ability to safely lift and move core boxes (up to 50 lbs) repetitively and work in a remote camp setting.
- Proactive and collaborative attitude, committed to working in a team environment based on respect, trust and accountability in pursuing shared goals.
- Mindset that factors personnel safety, environmental protection, and community commitment into every decision and action.
- Effective communication, organization, and collaboration skills.
- Self-motivation with good attention to detail.
- Valid driver license with clean driving record.
- All new employees must pass a background check.
- Valid standard first aid certification a plus.

SCHEDULE: Work hours generally begin at 7:00 AM; schedule and rotations to be discussed.

PAY RATE: We offer competitive wages dependent upon experience and qualifications.

LOCATION: Palmer Project camp near Haines, Alaska (7.5 Mile Porcupine Road). Camp accommodation and meals are provided. Additional consideration for daily commuting may be available to residents of the Chilkat Valley on an individual basis.
